Community Life at Seelyville UMC

The Holy Puppets

Life at Seelyville UMC is all about community.

From Sunday morning worship to Bible study to outreach to scouting, our life as a community of faith is all about one another. Everything we do is founded in Jesus' admonition to love God and to love one another.

There are many ways we show ourselves the love of God, yet our hope is to get the opportunity to share the love of God with others. No matter your church background — none or some; or previous church experience — good or bad, we want you to know the love of God in your life. Even if our paths cross only once, our prayer is that you may be blessed by that encounter.

"And remember, I am with you always"

Matthew 28:20

Our Worship Life

Worship is foundational to all Christian life, so we take our worship responsibilities seriously, yet joyously. Worship is a time we set apart in our lives to re-center on what really matters. We encourage living daily worshipful lives, as well as coming together and worshipping in community.

Seelyville UMC's Sunday worship is at 9:30 am, and is a service that draws from the best of ancient, traditional, and contemporary worship practices. Sunday school for all ages begins at 10:45 am.

Serving & Growing With Christ

Life in the community of Seelyville UMC means service and growth. All our ministries have at their core the desire to grow spiritually and to reach out in service to others. These ministries include ongoing Bible studies, fellowship groups, service groups, music groups, fellowship dinners for Rose-Hulman students, craft and scrapbooking groups, scouts, and special opportunities that meet once or over a short period.

Seelyville UMC is very active in service to our local community and the greater Terre Haute area. The congregation maintains an emergency food pantry and provides assistance to those in need of short-term financial assistance. Nearly

Sharing God's love is what the 14th & Chestnut Community Center is all about one-third of our congregation volunteers at or financially supports the 14th & Chestnut Community Center, an ecumenical outreach ministry in Terre Haute. Volunteers cook meals at the Grumbling Tummies Café, help in the Mother Hubbard's Cupboard food pantry, tutor, sing, and most importantly, share the love of God.

Other outreach opportunities include Operation Classroom support, Race for the Cure, Crop Walk, Share Food, and our First Sunday Mission Emphasis.
